Let's start your journey.

How Do You Rebuild It?

Staying in your relationship in an environment where love, trust, and fun are lost is not a responsible plan, especially if you're not setting a healthy example for your children. Your one-on-one coaching program will teach you how to show up as your authentic and best self. This knowledge will help you become "magnetic" to your partner while releasing old patterns to create a new and extraordinary relationship.

How Do You End It with a New Future?

Conscious Uncoupling is quickly changing how divorce can improve lives. We will work together to explore yours and everyone's needs and derive how these needs can best be met. This includes your needs, your uncoupling-partner's needs; and, most of all, your kids' needs. You will create new, cooperative, co-parenting, and life-affirming agreements and skills that set everyone up to win moving forward and to start "Living Happily Even After."

How Do You Decide?

Utilizing all of your life experiences, intuition, and intellect, we look at your situation, how it was created, how to heal you, and how to make life-transforming breakthroughs. This will enable you to start creating your best next chapter. The purpose of the program is to lead to a higher-quality life for you and for your family – whatever that family looks like.

Do you have a good perspective on how you and your partner are doing in your relationship?

On a scale of 0 (Horrible) to 5 (Great) how would you rate yourself and rate your partner's level on the following relationship elements (Relationships) in your partnership?

	You?	Your Partner?
Acceptance	_____	_____
Trust	_____	_____
Commitment	_____	_____
Communication	_____	_____
Respect	_____	_____
Love	_____	_____
Quality Time	_____	_____
Physical Intimacy	_____	_____
Friendship	_____	_____
Fun	_____	_____
Humor	_____	_____
Shared Vision	_____	_____

You might want to let your partner take the quiz too. Now you both can compare your ratings and discuss what's working, what's not, and what you want to do about it. This is a powerful opportunity for you to learn about and grow your relationship.
